Cavalena Group at Raymond James announces new offices and a new name.

(Dover, Ohio – 11/09/05) Larry Cavalena, Registered Principal at Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. announced today that his organization continues its expansion in Northeast Ohio with the opening of new offices at 2787 Front Street in Cuyahoga Falls.

“These new offices will let us better serve our growing client base in the Greater Akron region,” Cavalena said. “They also mark our third expansion in services since the beginning of this year. We have grown from a 6-person, single-office operation to one employing 10 professionals in four offices located in Dover, Berlin, Millersburg and Cuyahoga Falls. To identify our four Raymond James offices, we are giving our multi-office operation a new name - - The Cavalena Group at Raymond James Financial Services.”

The Cuyahoga Falls office is located in the recently revitalized River Vista Plaza commercial district near the Highway 59 Exit on Route 8 and is fully staffed with two registered representatives and a full-time operations assistant. The investment professionals are Marianne Myers and Michael Darby who recently joined Raymond James Financial Services from Morgan Stanley in Akron where both were registered representatives. Myers has over 23 years of financial service experience and Darby over 12 years.

“We are proud to add Marianne and Michael to our team,” Cavalena commented. “They are proven professionals who share the values that have been and will continue to be the key to our growth: providing prompt, courteous, highly personalized service for each and every client and always making the client’s interests our first priority. We also share the same conservative philosophy when it comes to managing investments, which, simply stated, means “Guarding Your Capital.Growing Your Wealth.”

The Cavalena Group at Raymond James Financial Services serves clients from 22 US States and 10 foreign countries as well as clients throughout the state of Ohio. The Cavalena Group provides a complete range of financial products and services for both individuals and businesses including estate planning, trust management, retirement plans and business succession planning all backed by the resources of Raymond James Financial Services, one of the world's largest and most trusted providers of financial services.
